

JUNIOR FARMERS' ASSOCIATION OF ONTARIO

POLICIES

AS OF September 2011

A. Affiliation

1. Clubs not meeting the January affiliation report deadline each year as directed by the Policies & Procedures Committee will be subject to a $100.00 late fee.
1987/2005/2008
2. The annual club financial form must be submitted to the JFAO Director of Finance no later than January 31st. It will include account balances of all accounts held by the club as well as a list of donations made during the previous fiscal year. Clubs which have not submitted the form on time will be subject to a $50 late fee.  Note these forms are required for the JFAO Audit.
2008
3. Club insurance requests and memberships from clubs will not be processed until all of the above forms and any late fee(s) are received and approved by the Policies & Procedures committee.
2008
4. Each club that meets the eligibility requirements for voting at the Annual General Meeting will be entitled to one voting delegate for every five club members registered in the previous year, rounded to the nearest five. The number of voting delegates will be confirmed during the January meeting of the Board of Directors.
2009

B. Membership

- 1.1 All groups using the JF name are required to forward individual membership fees yearly to JFAO as follows:
 - New Members (regardless of when joining): $25

 - Returning Members after January 31: $452006/2008
- 1.2 Membership provides each member with a membership card, the right to participate in provincial events and activities, the right to apply for travel opportunities, discounts at selected JF events and opportunities, liability insurance, awards, provincial office, and event and program support for clubs.
2006/2008
2. Clubs must submit all membership fees to the JFAO office with a club cheque and the appropriate membership form. No personal cheques or cash will be accepted, unless pre-approved by the Executive Director of Finance.
2003/2008
3. Completed membership forms and the required fees must be post-marked to JFAO or received by January 31st for members to receive the Membership Month discount. These memberships will be processed by no later than the end of March Conference, as long as the club has met all required deadlines.
2004/2006/2008
4. At the discretion of the Executive Director of Membership, new clubs (clubs that did not exist at any point in the previous year) may pay membership fees at the January rates to affiliate at any point during their first year.
2006
5. An additional $5.00 processing fee will be charged to any member requesting a replacement card due to loss or transferring their membership to another club. A maximum of two club transfers per year will be allowed.
2002/2008 /2009

C. Board of Directors

1. All attendees are to wear appropriate business/office attire at provincial meetings to portray a professional organization.
1987/1993/2008
2. Members of the Board of Directors and Organization Representatives who arrive late to meetings will be charged $5.00 at the discretion of the Past President.
2006
3. Members of the Board of Directors, Representatives and any other person required to be in attendance at a Board of Directors meeting will be charged $10.00 if they fail to RSVP by the deadline to the JFAO office or fail to follow through with their commitment. This fee will be charged at the discretion of the Past President. If no deadline is specified, the deadline will be two weeks before the meeting.
1996/2006/2008
4. Each club is encouraged to appoint or elect a member to the position of "Assistant Provincial Director." This person will be the automatic alternate for that club if the Provincial Director is unable to attend a meeting or fulfill the full year's term.
1968/1987
5. All visitors at Board of Directors' meetings have the opportunity to participate in open discussion.
1993
6. A copy of the minutes of all Board of Directors meetings will be e-mailed to club Presidents, Provincial Directors, and JFAO Organization Representatives. Upon request a copy can be sent to Assistant Provincial Directors or by Canada Post. The previous minutes and a meeting agenda will be e-mailed out no later than two weeks prior to each meeting.
1968/1987/1992/1998/2006/2008
7. The minutes of each meeting are to record the presence or absence of members of the Executive committee, organization representatives, each club, and any guests, and which club representative is voting.
1968/2005/2008
8. An action list will be e-mailed to the appropriate contact list within one week of each executive or Board of Directors meeting.
2000/2008

D. Committees

1. All final recommendations from committees must be voted on by the Executive or Board of Directors.
1979
2. Standing committees are authorized to make definite plans for activities in the next year. Once announced, these activities may only be cancelled with the approval of the Board of Directors.
1987/2008
3. The Executive Committee has the authority to finalize minor details for all approved activities after they have been developed by the standing program committee responsible for that activity.
1974

E. Finances

1. Expense claims

- 1.1 Members who serve JFAO on the Provincial Executive, as Provincial Directors, as members of a provincial committee or as a representative of JFAO may claim travel and living expenses for attendance at meetings, regularly scheduled JFAO functions, and for any other work directly involved in the carrying out of the duties of their office with pre-approval by the Executive committee. Expense claims must be approved by two members of the executive committee. Receipts, where applicable, must be submitted for all claims to be paid.
1985/1994/2004/2008
- 1.2 Eligible members as outlined in section E 1.1 may make claims as follows:
- a. mileage paid to the vehicle owner at a rate of 30 cents per kilometre for the equivalent of a direct trip from the member's home to the event. Eligible members who travel by air to provincial meetings or activities may claim the lesser of either one-half (1/2) of the plane ticket or the equivalent mileage. Directors from Zone 6 are exempt from this policy. Eligible members who travel by any other form of public transportation may claim the cost of the round trip fare, or the equivalent mileage, whichever is less.
1985/2004/2005/2008
 - b. $20.00 per night for hotel accommodation if accommodations are not provided. Anyone making this claim must ensure the name of each person staying in the room has been written on the receipt by the person who paid for the room, and a copy of that receipt submitted.
1979/2004/2008
 - c. breakfast maximum $3, lunch maximum $5, dinner maximum $10, if a meal is not provided.
2004
- 1.3 Eligible members who are absent from a session of a meeting or event without just cause will not have their expenses for that event paid, and members of the Board of Directors and Organization Representatives will lose their attendance credit towards their eligibility for voting at the AGM and for re-election.
1973/1992/2003
- 1.4 Visitors (anyone not required or asked to attend) at Board of Directors' meetings will be charged for any meals provided and may not claim expenses.
1999/2008
- 1.5 Eligible members as outlined in E 1.1 may also submit telephone bills and logs to claim long distance and mailing costs for legitimate JF business.
1963/1985/1989/2004
- 1.6 a. All claim forms for activities during the current fiscal year must be received or postmarked to the JFAO Office within thirty days of the reporting month, or they will not be paid.
1979/1994/2008
- 1.6 b. Notwithstanding 1.6a, claims for expenses within the current year donated to JFAO must be submitted by November 1 in order to assist with budgeting. Any further claims must be submitted by December 31 to meet CRA guidelines.
- 1.7 Representatives to other organizations who are eligible to claim expenses from the other organization should make a claim to that organization before claiming expenses from JFAO. Claims may not be made to both organizations for expenses already covered.
2008
- 1.8 Expense forms will be available for download from the JFAO website and at all Board meetings.
2004/2008

2. JFAO staff and members of the executive shall be allowed to authorize expenses for JFAO up to a maximum of $100. Any higher amount must already be approved within an event budget or have the pre-authorized signature and approval from two of the Executive Director of Finance, the Past President, or President.
2002/2008
- 3.1 The appropriate form must accompany all monies coming into the JFAO office, so that the JFAO office will have a clear understanding of who submitted it, and what the money was for. The purpose for each cheque should be written on its memo line.
2003/2008
- 3.2 A five percent administration fee will be added to any invoices that are outstanding to JFAO for more than two months. All club invoices will be sent directly to club treasurers.
1998/2005
4. Cheques written by JFAO are to be cashed within three months of the issue date, or they will not be reissued. Cheques received by JFAO are to be cashed/deposited monthly, or within three months of the issue date.
1985/2002
- 5.1 Any individual or organization who bounces a cheque with JFAO will be subject to a $50 charge to cover all administrative and banking fees.
2007
- 5.2 After an individual or organization bounces one cheque with JFAO, they will have to arrange to make further payments by money order and/or certified cheque for the following 12 month period.
1998
6. A comparative year to date financial statement will be presented to the Executive on a monthly basis.
1999
7. A year to date financial statement comparing actual expenditures to budget will be presented at each meeting of the Board of Directors.
1999
8. All information required for the annual audit must be submitted as specified by/to the JFAO Executive Director of Finance, no later than January 31st.
2008
9. Proposed budgets for any grant applications must be presented and approved by the Board of Directors or Executive Committee prior to the submission of any application.
2000
10. JFAO will retain any money provided from clubs that cease operation for a future start-up club in that area. Until the new club provides an affiliation report, any expenses it claims against the money from the previous club must be approved by the JFAO executive to be paid.
2008
11. JFAO will pay a $30 honourarium per half day (minimum three-hour shift) to authorized volunteers representing JFAO at trade shows. Shifts will be scheduled on a half-day basis.
2009
12. Management of the JFAO 50th Anniversary Endowment Fund will be subject to the terms of the contract with Ontario 4-H Foundation.
2011

F. Provincial Events & Activities

- 1.1 When an activity authorized or awarded by JFAO is hosted by a club, county or zone on behalf of JFAO, then it is to be considered a provincial activity.
1974/2008
- 1.2 Valid membership card holders will be entitled to a discount at all provincial dances.
2002
- 2.1 Registration fees set by committees for provincial events will be individual. Each club that has completed the affiliation requirements within the past year must register a minimum of one member for each event with the exception of provincial fundraising events. The committee may set a maximum entry fee per club.
2004/2008
- 2.2 All cheques for workshops or events, except March Conference, received by the two week cancellation deadline will be cashed the first business day after the two week cancellation deadline. All cheques for March Conference will be cashed on a weekly basis as they are received.
1992
- 2.3 Cheques for all JFAO events must be postmarked or received within five days of the registration form being sent.
2007
- 3 Hotel rooms may not be block booked under the Junior Farmer name for any event except March Conference. This does not prevent block bookings under an event name.
2001, 2008
- 4 Dress code for all JFAO programs is at the discretion of the provincial committee responsible. The committee shall ensure the required dress code is communicated in all advertisements for the event.
1995
5. Organizing committees for all JFAO events should consult with the Director of Fund Development before approaching sponsors. Clubs must submit a list of local sponsors to the Director of Fund Development at least two months prior to the event, and provide updates on any additional sponsors as soon as they are received.
2000/2008
- 6.1 A draft media release briefly outlining what will be happening, dates, locations, and a club/committee contact person for media wishing to attend must be submitted to the Executive Director of Marketing 14 days prior to each provincial event. Late submissions will result in a $50 late fee.
- 6.2 An electronic report outlining activities & highlights at each provincial event, workshop, or conference is due to the Executive Director of Marketing as soon as possible but no later than seven days following the conclusion of the event, along with a list of club and participant winners (if applicable). Late submissions will result in a $50 late fee.
2003/2006/2008
- 7.1. Clubs requiring insurance for an event are responsible for paying any additional premium. Requests for additional insurance or proof of insurance must be received by the JFAO office at least two weeks prior to the event.
2008
- 7.2 Anyone making an insurance claim through JFAO insurance is responsible for paying the deductible.
2007

8.0 For all provincial events, clubs are responsible for:

-sending team registration information and fees as specified in the event information package (postmarked two weeks prior or received one week prior) 1986/1993

-Clubs who miss the above deadline may still participate but will not receive any awards/recognition and may be subject to a penalty fee.

1986/1993

-Memberships may be registered at any provincial event but will be charged an additional 5 dollars each. Membership information will be immediately passed on to the JFAO office and appropriate PD.

1996/2000

-paying an equal portion of the cost of repairs for any damage at an event when the person(s) responsible cannot be determined.

2003

9. When participating in provincial events or representing themselves in public as JF members, members and their guests will endeavour to represent themselves as good citizens of the community, keeping in mind the need to preserve a positive image of JFAO to ensure the future of the organization.

2007

10. Alcohol will not be tolerated at any JFAO activity designated by the JFAO as an "Alcohol-Free Event." Alcohol free events include any JFAO events taking place in a non-licensed facility. The club of any participant at such an event found consuming alcohol will be subject to a $100 fine for a first time offence and a $250 fine for subsequent offences. While the club is responsible for paying the fine to JFAO, it is expected the club will hold the offending member responsible for reimbursing that amount. The situation will be handled in a responsible and professional manner by two people, including at least one of the committee chair and/or any member of the executive.

2007, 2011

11. Bars at Provincial Events

11.1 Bars may be operated on behalf of JFAO if the location allows and the committee in charge feels it appropriate.

11.2 The organizing club/committee is responsible for obtaining all required licenses.

1971

11.3 Bar proceeds must be kept separate from all other proceeds of the event, except in the case they are required to cover a loss. All remaining bar proceeds will be donated to a registered Canadian charity

1985

11.4 Non-alcoholic beverages will be available at all JFAO functions.

2008

11.5 Any club may borrow the JFAO Smart Serve DVD kit to run a workshop by providing a deposit for the cost of replacement.

2009

12. Provincial Workshops & Conferences

12.1 Unless otherwise specified, all JFAO programs that require JFAO funds must present a budget at least two months prior to the program to either the Board of Directors or the JFAO Executive. Budgets must be submitted to the JFAO office at least two weeks prior to the meeting they are being presented at to allow pre-meeting distribution to the board.

1999, 2010

12.2 Gifts and reasonable expenses for guest speakers at provincial workshops and conferences shall be left to the discretion of the organizing committee in charge of the event.

1985

12.3 Committee members (maximum of 7) for JFAO Provincial Events including, but not limited to, Leadership Camp, March Conference and the Ontario Young Farmers' Forum will pay ½ cost of the early bird registration fee until the early bird registration deadline, after that the committee member will pay full delegate rate.

1995, 2004, 2007

12.4 Delegates who have paid individual registration fees for JFAO events who find they are unable to attend will have their fees refunded if they notify JFAO two weeks prior to the event. Exceptions may be made in extreme circumstances.

1985/2007

13. March Conference

13.1 March Conference will be held the last full weekend in March, except in years when it conflicts with Easter, in which case it will be held the weekend preceding.

2004/2006

13.2 The location for March Conference will alternate between mid-eastern and mid-western Ontario each year, with Guelph considered the centre. The hotel will be selected and booked by the March Conference Administrator / Committee who oversaw the previous conference no later than the Summer Board of Directors meeting with approval from the Executive committee.

2004, 2008

13.3 With the exception of the Annual General Meeting, March Conference activities are reserved for March Conference delegates ONLY. Attendees of the AGM may pre-purchase tickets to the Friday night dinner. The Saturday night Banquet and Dance may only be attended by ticket holders.

1999/2008/2009

13.4 The March Conference Coordinator will be hired to support the March Conference Committee no later than August 1 each year. A two year contract will be offered with the option for either side to cancel after the first year. Upon acceptance by the JFAO Board of Directors of a final report submitted in hard copy and by e-mail, this position will receive an honourarium as specified in the JFAO Operating Budget and the coordinator's contract.

2001/2008

13.4 Members may submit their name to the Executive Director of Membership by August 1 requesting to be a member of the organizing committee. The committee will be finalized by the Executive Director of Membership.

1. JFAO offers up to 7 international and 2 inter-provincial exchanges each year.

2. Outgoing delegates must be age 18-29 for inter-provincial and 20-29 for international as of January 1, the year of the exchange.
2005

3.1. Members in good standing after one year may apply to win one international travel opportunity or one inter-provincial travel opportunity where the delegates are chosen by a selection process determined by the Travel and Hospitality committee and outlined in the exchange application package.
1984/2001/2008

3.2. Delegates selected for exchange are required to bring a semi-formal outfit to wear at official events while on exchange.
1985/1988/2002/2009

4. A member who has previously been awarded a JF travel opportunity may apply for a different travel opportunity. Priority will be given to any qualified member who has not previously been awarded a travel opportunity.
2004/2009

5.1 The bursaries for successfully completed exchanges are as follows:

- Australia/ New Zealand - 2/3 of flight costs or $1500, whichever is less
- United Kingdom, Ireland, Germany, Switzerland, Austria - 2/3 of flight costs or $600, whichever is less
- Alberta, PEI – ½ of flight costs or ½ of travel costs at 20 cents/km or $300 – whichever is less.

5.2 The bursary amounts will be re-evaluated by the Board of Directors each year as part of the JFAO budget process. The rate in place at the time of awarding will apply for exchanges not yet complete.
1985/1988/1992/1993/2002/2004/2005/2007/2008

6. Travel opportunities are considered a reward for members. Bursaries may be denied by the executive upon the recommendation of the T&H committee for inappropriate behavior on exchange. Delegates will receive a travel bursary only after successfully completing the following requirements:

6.1. Pre-Exchange

- provide for approval by the JFAO Executive Director of Marketing a draft media release containing a personal bio & photo, information about the upcoming trip, and how the exchange was awarded. Upon approval, this will be sent to local media and used to market JFAO.

6.2. During the Exchange (International only)

- provide a monthly update on the experience to the JFAO Executive Director of Marketing for the JFAO website, newsletter and local media. Photos are encouraged.

6.3. Post-Exchange

- within 30 days of returning, provide a media release/report with personal photo(s) outlining the full exchange experience for the JFAO Executive Director of Marketing, and travel receipts for the JFAO Executive Director of Finance.
- also providing a report of any additional information that may be useful to JFAO, ie. recruitment, events, structure, etc.
- do at least one presentation on the exchange at a JFAO event before the end of the current year in consultation with the JFAO Executive Director of Community & International Programs. Travel expenses for this event may be claimed from JFAO as per section E1.

7. Any member wishing support from JFAO to attend the World Congress of Young Farmers must prepare a proposal and submit it for financial consideration.
2003

8. All official incoming and outgoing JFAO delegates will receive a complimentary JFAO crest.
1967/2006/2008

9.1 The incoming delegate rotation for the following year will be confirmed at the Summer Board of Directors meeting to assist clubs with scheduling any major events.

10. Incoming delegates must be between ages 19-30.
2005

11. Delegates will only be hosted by households with at least one other member of the same gender.
2002/2008

12.1 Host families & clubs are responsible for:

-a safe, clean & comfortable environment

-a place to sleep, preferably a bed in a private bedroom

-healthy meals at home (minimum two per day or provide a packed lunch)

-safe transportation to family, club, and provincial JF activities

-opportunity to do laundry

-free time & appropriate privacy

-contacting the next host/club at least two weeks ahead of time to arrange a mutually convenient transfer/pick-up location and time

12.2 Hosts/clubs are not responsible for:

-paying for meals outside the home (must be kept within reason – max. one per day)

-paying for long distance phone calls

-running tours everyday (remember they're here to experience your normal life in Ontario)

-paying delegate admission fees (but can if desired)

-personal expenses/souvenirs etc.

2008

13.1 Clubs will not announce plans for delegates not being hosted by their own members without first consulting with the other hosting clubs. Once these arrangements are made clubs will give proper notice to the other clubs should changes be needed.
2009

13.2 Delegates are hosted on an individual basis and are to remain with their host family or club throughout the time assigned to them. Delegates will not receive visitors or make other arrangements without the prior permission of the individual host or host club and the Executive Director of Community & International Programs.

13.3 Clubs and zones are encouraged to make group tour arrangements when appropriate, but delegates should not expect to see each other on a daily basis and hosts are not obligated to follow through on such requests.
2009

13.4 Clubs will arrange activities for visiting delegates within their own area. Clubs will not arrange delegate activities in another club's area without consulting that club.
2005

14. JFAO does not serve as an employment agency for visitors to Ontario.
1979

15.1 When any group other than JFAO decides to have an activity for visiting delegates, the expenses involved for the visitors will be the responsibility of the group sponsoring the activity and will NOT be paid by JFAO.
1983

15.2 Clubs are strongly encouraged to waive registration and admission fees for delegates attending club-hosted dances and events. Where financial considerations make this impossible, exchange delegates will pay no more than the early-bird fee for JF members regardless of whether that deadline has passed.
2009

16.1 An Ambassadors' Reunion open to all members will be held each summer to promote the JFAO Exchange program and recognize past delegates, current visiting delegates, and delegate hosts.
2008

16.2 The Reunion Organizing Committee will consist of the Travel & Hospitality Committee and the travel opportunity winners from the preceding two years, with the exception of the Australia winner who will be from the past three years. The Director of Community and International Programs will organize the first meeting.
2000/2004/2006

16.3 Visiting international delegates will attend the Ambassadors' Reunion, Leadership Camp and any provincial event they are required to attend free of charge.
2008/2009
